

AMC Supplement to AR 381-10

Military Intelligence:

U.S. Army Intelligence Activities

U.S. Army Materiel Command
9301 Chapek Road
Fort Belvoir, VA 22060-5527
25 September 2006

UNCLASSIFIED

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
HEADQUARTERS, UNITED STATES ARMY MATERIEL COMMAND
9301 CHAPEK ROAD, FORT BELVOIR, VIRGINIA 22060-5527

AMC Supplement 1
to AR 381-10

25 Sep 2006

Military Intelligence

U.S. ARMY INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

This supplement may be further supplemented by Army Materiel Command (AMC) Major Subordinate Commands (MSCs), Life Cycle Management Commands (LCMCs), (including subordinate installations and activities) and installations and activities reporting directly to Headquarters, AMC as required. Two copies of each supplement will be furnished to the Command, AMC, ATTN: AMCMI and ATTN: AMCIG.

AR 381-10, 22 November 2005, is supplemented as follows:

Page i, Applicability. Add the following at the end:

Within AMC, these procedures apply to all AMC MSCs, LCMCs, and separate reporting activity (SRA) intelligence and security offices, installation security offices, and other installation and activity offices with personnel security responsibilities. Provisions of this regulation apply to all personnel assigned to an intelligence and security office, to include intelligence specialists/assistants, security specialists/assistants, the support staff, and all contractors and consultants.

Page 4, paragraph 1-4o(1), Responsibilities. Add the following at the end:

Within AMC, the AMC Inspector General has the inspection responsibility for IO.

Page 21, paragraph 14-1a, Training. Add the following at the end:

The implementation of this regulation is the responsibility of the AMC Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2.

Page 21, paragraph 14-1b, Training. Add the following at the end:

Within AMC, all applicable employees will review these procedures annually. At a minimum, procedures 2 through 4 and 14 through 17 will be reviewed. Each affected employee must sign a statement indicating he/she has been trained on the regulation and understands it. Employee statements will remain on file for three years. The annual training will be conducted in December of each calendar year. As part of the annual training, all official files and employee work areas will be reviewed to ensure information prohibited by this regulation has not been collected and retained. By 15 January each year, each MSC/LCMC Senior Intelligence Officer (SIO) will report the results of their annual Intelligence Oversight (IO) training and files review to HQ AMC, ATTN: AMCMI. Report will confirm that all appropriate personnel have been trained and understand AR 381-10 and the AMC Supplement thereto; that all files and work areas were reviewed for compliance with AR 381-10; and include the results of that review, e.g., no prohibited materials were found or prohibited materials were found and appropriate report was submitted. Report will state, "I certify that all (specify organization) personnel have been trained and understand AR 381-10. Within the last year, all I&S files and work areas are free of materials prohibited by AR 381-10."

*This supplement supersedes AMC Supplement 1 to AR 381-10, 18 June 1997.

Page 22, paragraph 15-2a, Reporting allegations. Add the following at the end:

A copy of each report of questionable intelligence activity will be forwarded to HQ AMC, ATTN: AMCMI, with an information copy to HQ AMC, ATTN: AMCIG.

Page 26, paragraph 17-1b, Command force protection programs. Add the following at the end:

In support of the AMC Force Protection Program as outlined in AMC-R 525-13, any information involving possible U.S. criminal or domestic terrorist activity received by AMC Intelligence and Security offices will be passed immediately to the appropriate law enforcement agency and not retained by the respective AMC Intelligence and Security office.

The proponent of this supplement is the U.S. Army Materiel Command. Users are invited to send comments and suggestions for improvement on DA Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms) to the Command, HQ AMC, ATTN: AMCMI, 9301 Chapek Road, Fort Belvoir, VA 22060.

FOR THE COMMANDER:

//Signed//
WILLIAM E. MORTENSEN
Lieutenant General, USA
Chief of Staff

DISTRIBUTION:

B
H